

CAL MARITIME

MEMORANDUM

SUBJ: Change 7 to the Student Handbook

---

1. As recommended by the Corps Executive Team and approved by the Vice President, Marine Programs and Student Development, the following change to Section 9: Watch Standing Regulations, is effective commencing April 7, 2008:

9.IV. CADET WATCH PERSONNEL:

4. ON-CALL WATCH

The Divisional On-Call Team will be available to respond to MARSEC level changes on TSGB or the facility; urgent repairs and maintenance on TSGB; and to vacancies in their specific watch bills. The Team may be recalled by the Captain of the Training Ship or their designee. Each On-Call Team will consist of four deck cadets, four engine cadets and four cadets in the campus/facilities watch rotation from the duty division. Each Team should consist of members from all four classes. Each oncoming On-Call Team cadet MUST report to the Corps Office between 0730 and 1230 to sign in as the On-Call Watchstander. Signing in consists of the Watchstander: 1) printing their name, 2) leaving a contact number where they will be available for recall during the entire period, and 3) signing their name, all in the On-Call Team Log. The On-Call watch stands relieved at 0730 the following morning and need not sign out of the log. For weekend watch, the On-Call Team is on duty from Friday through 0730 Monday. If the on-call Watchstander cannot provide a reliable contact number they may request a pager from a member of the Commandant's staff. If called, the On-Call Watchstander MUST be able to return to the campus in less than two hours and be ready to assume watch duties. Upon be recalled, it is the recalled cadet's responsibility to advise of any delay in arrival due to commuting requirements. On-Call Team Standing Orders are posted under watchstanding on the current students section of the csum.edu website.

All other provisions remain in effect.