

Petition for New Student Parking on Campus

General Information:

For the purpose of this form, "New Student" is defined as a first-time California Maritime Academy student. Effective Fall 2008, all incoming students are restricted from purchasing a campus vehicle parking permit. This form may be used by new students with a compelling need for a campus parking permit to request special consideration. Please include all pertinent information that you think will be helpful in supporting your petition, and attach supporting documents to this form when submitted. The petition will be reviewed by the Chief of Police, Director of Public Safety, or appropriate designee(s). Petitions are reviewed on a case-by-case basis. Questions regarding the petition process may be directed to the Police & Public Safety Office at (707) 654-1175. If the petition is sent separately, please send directly to Police & Public Safety Office, 200 Maritime Academy Drive, Vallejo, CA 94590. First Priority will be given to requests received before July 1, 2009.
