WHAT MAKES CAL MARITIME UNIQUE

Best of Both Worlds

- Hybrid of CSU campus & industry-specific education

Approx. 925 Students - Avg. class size – 18 - 69% first-time freshmen

- Lower-division transfers accepted

Hands-On Education

- Laboratories & simulators
- International learning experienceIndustry co-ops & internships

Professional Academy Rather Than Military School

Excellent Job Opportunities

EDUCATION THAT WORKS

- Small class sizes Average of 20
- High unit majors
- A "work hard/play hard" environment
- Low cost for an expensive education
- International travel required
- Internships required

- Emphasis on practical application simulations, project builds, consulting projects, school ship training voyages, co-ops or internships, etc.
- Seagoing majors require earning a USCG license to graduate – full U.S. citizenship required for that license.
