

BEAR'S TALE

SATURDAY, JUNE 5, 2004
DEPARTING MOKPO - AT SEA

NOON POSITION

Latitude:	34° 15.9' N
Longitude:	125° 36.5' E
Average Speed:	11.5 kts
Distance to Go:	499 NM

Weather Forecast

A minor low-pressure system will be working its way North as we transit South to Okinawa. A number of other high-pressure systems should give us decent weather for our voyage. Winds should be approximately 10kts from the NorthEast with wave heights somewhere in the neighborhood of 3 to 6 feet. Visibility may be less than desirable for celestial seekers until the low-pressure system we are passing is astern of us.
