

Lenexa, Kansas, USA (April 2020) – At its Virtual Annual Conference and Assembly Meeting on March 31 through April 3, 2020, the International Accreditation Council for Business Education (IACBE) elected new members to its Board of Commissioners.

The IACBE is pleased to announce that Dr. Nipoli Kamdar, Professor and Department Chair, Department of International Business and Logistics at California State University Maritime Academy in Vallejo, California was elected as a member of the Board of Commissioners of the IACBE.

The Board of Commissioners of the IACBE is the independent accreditation decision-making body of the Council and is responsible for advancing the accreditation mission of the Council.

About the IACBE – The International Accreditation Council for Business Education (IACBE) was founded in 1997 and is nationally-recognized by the Council for Higher Education Accreditation (CHEA). The IACBE is the leader in mission-driven and outcomes-based programmatic accreditation in business and management education for student-centered colleges, universities, and other higher education institutions throughout the world.

The IACBE's mission is to promote and recognize excellence in business education in institutions of higher education worldwide, at both the undergraduate and graduate levels, through specialized accreditation of business programs. The IACBE has hundreds of member institutions and campuses worldwide, and has accredited over 1,500 business and business-related programs in the United States, Europe, Asia, the Middle East, Central America, and South America.

The IACBE's World Headquarters are located at 11374 Strang Line Road in Lenexa, Kansas, 66215, USA. For more information, please visit the IACBE's website at www.iacbe.org.