

Call for Proposals | March 15th – 16th, 2019

Now approaching its eighth year, Cal Maritime's Women in Maritime Leadership Conference supports the success of women in maritime. The 2019 conference will narrow its focus to deliver a leadership development curriculum specific to the goals of professional women in the maritime industry. With a revamped program structure, tracks for "Developing Self" and "Developing Others," and structured networking opportunities throughout the two days, the conference will leave participants with applicable, industry-relevant, and effective leadership strategies to add to their toolkits and inspiration to effect positive change within their own careers and the maritime industry.

WML seeks 90-minute interactive sessions for each of the respective tracks on the following topics:

- "Developing Self"

- Refining your Leading Edge
  - Insights from a Female Maritime CEO
  - From "Dream It" to "Achieve It": Plotting your Leadership Course

- "Developing Others"

- Diagnosing & Treating Conflict
  - Developing the "I"s in your Team
  - Piloting Shifts in your Organizational Culture

(for synopses of these topics, please visit www.csum.edu/wml)

Proposal Format

Session format (select one): Panel, workshop, presentation

Has this presentation been made elsewhere? If so, where?

Session description & outcomes (150-word limit):

Presenter name(s), title(s), and brief bio(s) (75-word limit):

How will participant interaction be integrated into this session? (75-word limit)

For more information on the conference, visit our website: www.csum.edu/wml

Proposal Submission Deadline: Friday, December 15, 2018

