The California Maritime Academy Foundation
Report of Charitable Giving
July 1, 2010 through June 30, 2011

The California Maritime Academy’s success is due, in large part, to the generous financial support we have received from alumni, parents, friends, foundations, organizations and corporations. It is with great pleasure that we present the Report of Charitable Giving for The California Maritime Academy Foundation. We would like to thank all of those listed in this report for their loyalty and commitment to Cal Maritime.

HAROLD AND JO ANN ROBINSON SCHOLARSHIP ENDOWMENT ESTABLISHED

Harold “Hal” Robinson (D-62) loved The California Maritime Academy and his career as a Panama Canal Pilot. For his widow Jo Ann, making the decision to establish a scholarship endowment upon his passing earlier this year, was an easy one.

“It was in our trust since 2001 that we wanted to establish a scholarship endowment,” said Jo Ann Robinson. “We were going to do it on the case of both of our deaths, but I decided that I wanted to establish the scholarship while I’m still alive so I would have a chance to meet some of the students who benefit from it.”

In March, Jo Ann officially established the Harold and Jo Ann Robinson Scholarship Endowment to support students at Cal Maritime who are studying Marine Transportation, with a particular emphasis being paid to cadets interested in becoming a bar, river or canal pilot in the tradition of Captain Robinson.

Upon graduating from the academy in 1962, Hal sailed with the Military Sealift Command (MSC) for 12 years before becoming a Panama Canal Pilot, a position he held for 18 years until he retired in 1994. He remained active with Cal Maritime and the Alumni Association, serving on the Alumni Association Board for many years and was a fixture at numerous homecomings and other campus events.

“Hal really enjoyed the academy and the experience and education it gave him,” said Jo Ann. “It was where his heart was, so giving back seemed like the right thing to do.”

To learn more about making a gift through your will or living trust, or creating a scholarship endowment to support CMA cadets, contact Tom Dunworth, vice president for advancement and executive director of the CMA Foundation at (707) 654-1037 or tdunworth@csum.edu.
